Looking for a fun and easy way to keep your kids entertained? These 30 cute and easy to make kittens are the perfect solution! Made from everyday materials like paper plates, cupcake liners, yarn balls, buttons, popsicle sticks, paper bags, and cardboard tubes, these kittens are sure to be a hit with kids of all ages.

1. Paper Plate Kittens

These paper plate kittens are super easy to make and require just a few simple materials. All you need is a paper plate, some markers, and some yarn. Simply draw a cat's face on the paper plate, add some whiskers and ears, and then glue on some yarn for the tail. You can also add other embellishments, such as bows or ribbons, to make your kittens even cuter.

2. Cupcake Liner Kittens

These cupcake liner kittens are almost as cute as the real thing! To make them, you will need cupcake liners, markers, and glue. Simply fold a cupcake liner in half and then draw on a cat's face. Add some whiskers and ears, and then glue on a pom-pom for the tail. You can also add other embellishments, such as bows or ribbons, to make your kittens even cuter.

3. Yarn Ball Kittens

These yarn ball kittens are soft and cuddly, and they are perfect for little hands. To make them, you will need yarn, scissors, and a needle and thread. Simply wind yarn around your fingers to create a ball. Then, tie off the end of the yarn and cut the excess. Next, sew on some eyes, a nose, and a mouth. You can also add other embellishments, such as whiskers or ears, to make your kittens even cuter.

4. Button Kittens

These button kittens are a great way to use up leftover buttons. To make them, you will need buttons, glue, and a piece of felt. Simply glue two buttons together to create the body of the kitten. Then, glue on a smaller button for the head. Add some felt for the ears and tail, and then draw on a face. You can also add other embellishments, such as whiskers or bows, to make your kittens even cuter.

5. Popsicle Stick Kittens

These popsicle stick kittens are a fun and easy way to use up leftover popsicle sticks. To make them, you will need popsicle sticks, glue, and markers. Simply glue three popsicle sticks together to create the body of the kitten. Then, glue on two popsicle sticks for the legs. Add some markers for the face and tail, and then glue on some pipe cleaners for the whiskers. You can also add other embellishments, such as bows or ribbons, to make your kittens even cuter.

6. Paper Bag Kittens

These paper bag kittens are a great way to recycle paper bags. To make them, you will need paper bags, markers, and glue. Simply fold a paper bag in half and then draw on a cat's face. Add some whiskers and ears, and then glue on some yarn for the tail. You can also add other embellishments, such as bows or ribbons, to make your kittens even cuter.

7. Cardboard Tube Kittens

These cardboard tube kittens are a great way to recycle cardboard tubes. To make them, you will need cardboard tubes, markers, and glue. Simply cut a cardboard tube in half. Then, draw on a cat's face on one half of the tube. Add some whiskers and ears, and then glue on some yarn for the tail. You can also add other embellishments, such as bows or ribbons, to make your kittens even cuter.
